Vocal sensation Calabria Foti and world-renowned trombone virtuoso Bob McChesney, long-time husband and wife, will delight the audience with their exciting blend of traditional jazz and beloved show tunes. Foti's delightful vocal stylings along with McChesney's buttery trombone playing can be heard daily on SiriusXM's 'Siriously Sinatra,' on XM's Real Jazz, and radio formats around the globe. The Great American Songbook at its best! A Grammy-nominated singer, Calabria's beautiful sound has been praised by legendary crooner Johnny Mathis, who exclaimed, "One of my greatest pleasures in life is listening to a beautiful voice. Calabria's voice is some of the most beautiful and artistic music I have ever heard!"

Bob McChesney's trombone mastery is known the world over. Famed composer Lalo Schifrin declared, "Bob McChesney is a virtuoso who has the gift to bring us the joy of music at the highest level." This gifted couple has enjoyed performing to sold-out crowds with Big Bands, symphony pops orchestras, as well as their own small band concerts. Bob and Calabria combine their enormous talents and warm personalities for a fun and engaging evening of entertainment. The highlight of any series or gala event, Bob and Calabria will swing, sway, and charm their way into your hearts!

"Foti and McChesney 'WOWED' the crowd, who rose to their feet in appreciation!" (Greeley (CO) Tribune)
